

Piqua Community Farmers Market Rules & Guidelines

The Piqua Community Farmers Market was created by Mainstreet Piqua to sell locally grown produce and products directly to consumers.

Rules and Regulations

The following rules have been established to create a market that offers local produce and products to the consumer directly from the producer. Read the Rules and Guidelines and keep this copy for your records. Failure to observe these rules may result in the termination of your market assignment.

If you have any questions regarding these rules or joining the market contact Lorna Swisher, 937-773-9355. Email us at Lorna@mainstreetpiqua.org

Only regional farmers, family members, partners and employees may sell at the market.

Produce that is not in-season in Ohio may be brought to the market until such item is readily available in the region. (For example: Single producer tomatoes may be sold at the Piqua Community Farmers Market until approx. July 1 – at which time that item is in-season in the Piqua, Ohio area)

Products and produce labeled organic must be certified according to the U.S.D.A. (United States Department of Agriculture)
