

Piqua Farmers Market

Thursdays from 3-6pm | Late May — End of September

For the very best in locally grown, home baked and handmade crafts, the Piqua Community Farmers Market is the place to be! Held in front of the Fort Piqua Plaza on High Street, the market is also a hub of activity including weekly visits by local non-profit organizations, civic groups and local businesses. There are also several competitions held throughout the year including a chocolate chip cookie contest, biggest tomato contest and a farm-themed cupcake decorating contest. See you at the market!
